

What if the gift you carry was handpicked by God—not just for you, but for the world around you?

What if the power you've been searching for... is already inside you?

The Bible says in 1 Corinthians 12 that there are many gifts—but only one Spirit who gives them. That same Spirit empowers believers in unique ways—not randomly, but intentionally—so the body of Christ can function in perfect harmony.

Paul explains that just like the human body has many parts, each with a different function, the Church is made of believers with diverse spiritual gifts—all equally important, all needed. This isn't about talent. It's about purpose.

Romans 12 tells us: "By the mercies of God, present your bodies a living sacrifice..."—because God has already equipped you with what you need to serve Him.

Your gift isn't just for you. It's for the Church. For building others up. For revealing the heart of Christ in action.

Ephesians 4 says we've been given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. And through that diversity, we find unity. God didn't just call you—He empowered you. That means your personality, your passion, your unique wiring—it's not a coincidence. It's divine design.

And 1 Peter 4 reminds us: Be sober. Be alert. Serve faithfully. Because the end of all things is near.

The Holy Spirit has gifted every believer with something powerful. And when we come together, those gifts become unstoppable.

So... what's your gift? And are you using it?

Because spiritual gifts aren't just about church roles—they're about spiritual impact. And when the Church starts walking in the fullness of her gifts... the world will see Jesus.
